TR605 - TOURISM THEORIES - Turizm Araştırmaları Enstitüsü - Turizm Rehberliği Ana Bilim Dalı General Info

Objectives of the Course

The aim of this course is to provide students with an in-depth understanding of the fundamental theoretical approaches used in tourism studies, to develop the ability to analyze tourism phenomena from an academic perspective and enhance critical thinking skills, and to enable them to evaluate, synthesize, and generate new research questions based on existing tourism theories.

Course Contents

This course encompasses the fundamental theoretical approaches used in tourism research, tourism theories, the analysis of tourism phenomena in social, economic, and cultural contexts, critical theory and methods, current debates in the literature, and the development of new theoretical approaches.

Recommended or Required Reading

McKercher, B., & Prideaux, B. (2020). Tourism theories, concepts and models. Goodfellow Publishers.

Planned Learning Activities and Teaching Methods

Lecture, Question-Answer, Discussion, and Article Critique Methods

Recommended Optional Programme Components

To reinforce the topics covered in the course, students are encouraged to follow current academic articles and research related to tourism theories, analyze theoretical approaches through literature examples, and actively participate in discussions and article critiques.

Instructor's Assistants

There is no teaching assistant assigned for this course.

Presentation Of Course

It is recommended that students follow current articles and research to reinforce the topics covered in class, develop their analytical skills through case studies and example analyses, and strengthen their critical thinking abilities through group discussions and article critiques.

Dersi Veren Öğretim Elemanları

Assoc. Prof. Dr. Ömer Çoban

Program Outcomes

1. Can explain the relationship between the concept of theory and other scientific concepts.
2. Can understand the role and significance of theory in scientific research.
3. Gains detailed knowledge about the fundamental theories and models used in the field of tourism.
4. Can analyze tourism theories and evaluate them in different research and application contexts.
