KMY235 - OBLIGATIONS LAW - İktisadi ve İdari Bilimler Fakültesi - Kamu Yönetimi Bölümü

General Info

Objectives of the Course

The primary aim of the General Provisions of the Law of Obligations course is to examine the general normative framework governing the formation, effects, and termination of obligations, thereby providing a theoretical and systematic foundation for understanding the regulation of specific contractual relationships.

Course Contents

The content of the Law of Obligations course focuses on an in-depth examination of the three fundamental sources of obligations—contracts, torts, and unjust enrichment—while also addressing the establishment and termination of obligations, as well as the changes that may occur within these legal relationships.
